

“Interdisciplinary Education – Unlocking Our Potential”, Friday, 25th May 2018
Education and Research Centre, St. Vincent’s Hospital, Dublin

- 09.15-09.45 Registration & Coffee
- 09.45-10.00 Welcome Address Diarmuid O’Shea, President, Irish Gerontological Society
- 10.00-11.30 Session 1
- 10.00-10.30 Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Learning: Learning Together to Work Together
Professor. Frances Horgan, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
- 10.30-11.00 HaPAI and Life Long Learning Dr. Sarah Gibney, Healthy and Positive Ageing Initiative, Research Services Unit, Department of Health
- 11.00-11.30 Interdisciplinary Working to Facilitate Discharge of Older People from the Emergency Department Lucinda Edge, Clinical Specialist Physiotherapist, Home FIRsT (Frailty Intervention and Response Team), St. James’s Hospital
- 11.30-12.00 Coffee/Tea Break and Networking
- 12.00-13.30 Session 2
- 12.00-12.30 Medicines Reconciliation in A & E – FITT Beaumont Mairi Donald, Department of Pharmacy, Beaumont Hospital
- 12.30-13.00 The National Frailty Education Programme: Supporting a Culture of Change
Jonathon O’Keeffe, Advanced Nurse Practitioner Candidate Gerontology, St. Vincent’s Hospital and National Clinical Care Programme for Older People
- 13.00-13.30 Enhancing Interdisciplinary Dementia Care by Learning and Working Together
Dr. Aisling Jennings, GP/Clinical Fellow with PREPARED project (Primary Care Education, Pathways and Research of Dementia), University College Cork
- 13.30-14.00 Lunch and Networking
- 14.00-15.30 Session 3
- 14.00-14.30 The Integrated Care Programme for Older People Dr. Siobhan Kennelly, Integrated Care Programme for Older People
- 14.30-15.00 Health Literacy – Lessons for healthy ageing Helen Ryan, Policy Officer, National Adult literacy agency.
- 15.00-15.30 The Role of Patient and Public Involvement in Research Edel Murphy NUI Galway PPI Ignite Programme Manager
- 15.30-15.45 Discussion and Close Dr. Diarmuid O’Shea, IGS President